1- change background color for all p and li elements (using one selector).
2- set border to "3px solid green" for all elements having class a
3- change img borders , width and hieght
4- choose all paragraphs that are direct child for div then change their color and background color
5- select next paragraph to the first one on the page and change color and font size 6- same as 4 but now select all paragraphs next to the first one
7- change color for anchors starts with http keyword (use attribute filters)
8- change color for all inputs contains ok keyword (use multi attributes filters)
9- choose first row from each table and change it's background color
10-   choose first row in the page and change its background color
11- change color of last td in second table
12- change color for odd td's using nth-child(odd) and odd (what is the difference)
13- Select all input tags and change its color to blue